Patient Safety

The use or handling of health applications can entail a possible risk or hazard to the safety of patients either because of the functionalities they offer to the healthcare professional or because of the handling by the patient himself. To that goal, reasonable measures need to be taken to guarantee patient safety at all times and by all means. Below some general and more specific guidelines are given to this respect.

- Disclaimer
- CE Marking
- Evidence
- Alerts and Phone Calls

http://wiki.ivlab.iminds.be